Description

Set of 8 clear and resonant crystal wine glasses, Chauny Écailles et Filet model, dating from the first half of the 20th century. The Chauny Écailles et Filet model appears in Baccarat catalogs from the early 20th century and is documented in the 1916 edition. Its creation likely dates back to the 1900s, a period when the Baccarat crystal factory was developing refined tableware for an aristocratic and bourgeois clientele. This model belongs to the grand tradition of prestigious table services. The decoration, featuring an elegant pattern of finely cut scales enhanced by a delicate triple thread, reflects a pursuit of balance between ornamental richness and purity of line. The 8 glasses offered here, although not bearing the "Baccarat France" signature (which was only systematically applied
