Description

Elegant 19th century painting depicting a lively view of a city. This could be a representation of the city of Rouen with its half-timbered houses. This beautiful painting depicts different characters in a shopping street. In the foreground, a woman is carrying what appears to be bread. The play of light and the general perspective of this painting give it a peaceful atmosphere. The architecture is treated with finesse, the colors of this painting have remained vivid and bright. Signed lower right V. GELIN
