Description

Beautiful oil painting on canvas, set in a contemporary carved, ebonized, and gilded wooden frame. The painting depicts a somewhat shady landscape, with trees and a thick meadow. A small figure stands out in the foreground: a reclining woman resting, her red skirt accentuating the figure, while her horse grazes nearby.

This work is characterized by refined pictorial rendering and eloquent chiaroscuro, capable of tastefully furnishing any space with a touch of antiquity. Italian manufacture, attributed to the Roman School, late 17th century.
