Description

Bronze, allegory of summer, piece of furniture, Louis XV period, circa 1750, 18th century. We present this bronze sculpture with brown patina and gilt bronze, depicting a putti with outstretched wings on a drape holding in his right hand a sickle and a sheaf of wheat, in gilt bronze. It is worth noting the exceptional carving and the spirit specific to the baroque of the pure Louis XV style. A majestic movement emerging from this sculpture makes it a remarkable work. Private collection. In perfect condition. Dimensions: h.47 cm x l.44 cm x p.33 cm.
