Description

A charming 19th-century oil on canvas, this exquisite genre scene immerses us in the heart of rural life of yesteryear. On a path bordered by fields, a woman on horseback, accompanied by a mother and her child, advances towards a picturesque village bathed in soft light, under a sky animated by clouds. The careful composition and meticulous details--from the movement of the horse to the texture of the clothing--testify to the skill of an artist attentive to the poetry of everyday life. Presented in a magnificent, richly carved antique gilt frame, this work exudes an atmosphere that is both peaceful and lively, inviting the eye to travel back in time.
