Description

A functional work of art by Henri Fernandez. This sculptural table lamp, created in the 1970s by artisan Henri Fernandez, embodies the boldness and elegance of an era when design dared the unexpected. A dialogue between nature and craftsmanship. Its organic forms, inspired by stems and leaves, are finely crafted in hot-gilded brass. Each curve seems alive, as if frozen in perpetual motion, offering a presence that is both gentle and powerful. The magic of agate and light. At the heart of this creation, a flat, natural and mysterious agate stone serves as a base for two light sources. The light delicately passes through the stone, diffusing a warm, enveloping glow, transforming the space that hosts it. Remarkably preserved. This piece, in perfect working order, has survived the decades without
