Description

A lovely pair of Swedish demi-lune tables with turned legs. Scraped to their original colour, a lovely warm ochre colour which matches great with the pottery from the Provence. These tables can be used in various ways, as a nice round dining table as well as a pair of consoles. Lovely weathered patina and very sturdy tables. Dating to the 19th century and in very good condition. Ø 110 cm, 55 cm deep (each table).
