Description

A lovely, sober and decorative Somno forming a sheath, wooden top, in light mahogany without artifice or ornaments, a piece of great sobriety from the First Empire period of quality, easy to place at the end of a sofa on all sides. Its patinated bronze door handle in the shape of a shuttle, the deliberately discreet recessed hinges and its chamfered lower fullness on discreet feet, the high belt in all simplicity devoid of artifice; can be used to present an important object, a vase, a statue... The interior as a functional shelf. Its circumference is not deformed over time and this pretty piece of furniture is treated
