Description

LALIQUE - A Suite of Twelve Crystal Knife Rests, "Chardon d'Écosse" Motif, circa 1950-1960 An elegant ensemble of twelve frosted and clear crystal knife rests, each signed Lalique France, featuring the emblematic thistle motif -- a symbol of nobility and resilience. This refined Art Deco composition exemplifies the virtuosity of the Lalique atelier, where purity of material meets the delicacy of design in a harmonious play of light and transparency. Crafted in the mid-20th century, these pieces reflect the exceptional savoir-faire of Lalique's artisans, with each detail conceived as a miniature work of art. The thistle, rendered with poetic precision, evokes both strength and grace, making this suite a rare and distinguished addition to any collector's table. Dimensions: Approx. 8.3 cm (length) × 5
