Description

French school: Movement: Naturalism. Date of creation: around 1885-1890. Location: not located, but presumably a river or a tributary stream of the Loire, which crosses the city of Nevers, where the painter lived. The two leaves, free, have preserved a perfect state of freshness. Note some contemporary water stains at the execution of the work and requiring the intervention of a restorer on the sheet where the two bovinds appear. A restoration would have been entirely conceivable but not carried out, for the sake of preserving the work in its strict original state. La Galerie Le Mont des Arts only intervenes very exceptionally on works requiring restoration, and this, in order to ensure total transparency as to the object proposed to its future customers, always anxious to involve their
