Description

Genre Scene Painting Horsewoman in the Park
Oil/Canvas late 19th century Signed
Charming representation of an elegant horsewoman sitting on a bench in a wooded and flowery park. The artist has captured a moment of tranquility in a soft and slightly vaporous landscape bathed in spring or autumn light. The slightly pastel colors are typical of French painters of the late 19th century influenced by the Barbizon school and the first impressionists. Signed lower left but not very legible. French school of the late 19th - early 20th century. Oil on canvas. 20th century frame.
