Description

Alphonse VERHEYEN (Antwerp, 1903-1990) Sunrise circa 1940 oil on canvas mounted on panel 16 x 29 cm; 27 x 40 cm estate sale stamp on the back Trained at the Academy and the Higher Institute of Antwerp, Alphonse Verheyen belongs to that generation of Belgian artists who knew how to combine academic rigor and poetic freedom. A student of Isidore Opsomer and Albert Ciamberlani, he participated in several major public decorative projects before devoting himself to easel painting. In our Sunrise, Verheyen deploys a subtle palette, dominated by the diffuse light of the early hours. Through a delicate play of transparencies and muted touches, he translates the breathing of the landscape at the moment when the nascent clarity dissolves the night.
