Description

FAEHNLEIN Jules (19th-20th century) "Rue de l'Apport in Dinan" Oil on canvas, Signed lower right, Beautiful work by the Strasbourg painter Jules Faehnlein which represents a rare view of the historic center of Dinan, more precisely of the rue de l'Apport or the rue des Cordeliers. We can locate this street thanks to the advertising sign on the wall of the house on the right "DAVY Chapelier". The Rue des Cordelier or de l'Apport suffered a serious accidental fire on February 3 and 4, 1907, destroying 5 houses with porches. Nevertheless, the first two houses with porches visible in the work are still visible today in Dinan. Our work is a beautiful and rare testimony to the liveliness in the historic center of Dinan at the beginning of the 20th century. A student of Jean-Jacques Henner and Jean-Léon Gérôme,
