Description

Pair of Art Deco Bookends - Stylized Fish in Bronze, 20th Century Elegant pair of bronze bookends representing two stylized fish, typical of the Art Deco style of the 20th century. These sculptures with dynamic lines and balanced forms demonstrate refined decorative work, combining aesthetics and functionality. Each fish rests on an octagonal base in black stone, ensuring stability and highlighting. The combination of verdigris patina and gilt bronze creates a subtle and refined contrast, evoking aquatic nuances while highlighting the sculpted details: scales, fins and expressions. Although unsigned, these pieces present a careful quality of execution, both in the modeling and the finish, in keeping with the decorative productions of the period.
