Description

Superb bronze animal sculpture representing a stylized fish, created in the Art Deco style, dating from the 20th century. The work is distinguished by its refined design, taut lines, and formal balance characteristic of this period.The fluid modeling of the fins and the stylized treatment of the body demonstrate true artistic expertise, typical of decorative creations from the interwar period. The deep and even dark brown patina highlights the reliefs and gives the piece an understated elegance.The entire sculpture rests on a rectangular black stone base, which reinforces the visual and material stability of the sculpture.The work is signed "Luc," a signature incised on the bronze.
