The return must use a shipping method with insurance coverage equal to the sale price on my Proantic site (matching the level of insurance originally arranged by the seller). The buyer must also email me the proof of posting/drop-off receipt issued by the postal service or the shipping slip issued by the carrier. - All sales made via my Proantic site are covered by insurance purchased from La Poste at the time of shipping; this covers loss or theft up to the purchase price paid by the buyer.- La Poste does not provide insurance against breakage or damage to the item or object; coverage for parcel transport is limited to theft and loss.- Additional insurance covering breakage or damage--up to the price paid by the buyer on my Proantic site--is always purchased from the carrier when a third-party carrier is used.- The buyer risks legal penalties if they fail to return the item or object within the 14-day period and in good condition.-

Refunds for the item or object will be issued within 14 days of the seller receiving the item or parcel and verifying its condition.- If the item or object is found not to match its original condition at the time of dispatch, the sale will be considered final and non-refundable; the right of withdrawal will not apply.- Refunds for the item or object will be issued using the same payment method (check, bank transfer, PayPal) used by the buyer for the original purchase on my Proantic site.- If payment was made via PayPal, the buyer is responsible for initiating the refund process--specifically, by navigating to the "Dispute" section and opening a dispute case involving themselves, PayPal, and the seller.- This notice regarding sales on my Proantic site is addressed to individuals prone to litigation or acting in bad faith. - I advise anyone prone to litigation or acting in bad faith not to purchase anything from my Proantic shop; this will save me from wasting time and money on legal proceedings.- Fortunately, my sales on Proantic generally go very smoothly, as the customers are usually pleasant, agreeable, and acting in good faith.- Best regards,- Mr. Pineaud.
