Description

A charming oil painting on oak panel, presented in a contemporary carved and gilded wooden frame with gold leaf. The work depicts a lively country scene, with figures resting along a river. Among the figures are horsemen and hunting dogs, while a woman sits next to a standing man who is removing his hat. The landscape, in a Romantic style, is distinguished by its excellent pictorial and stylistic rendering. The painting is in good condition, with minimal restoration work. It is a work of exquisite craftsmanship, capable of enriching any setting with taste and refinement. Attributable to the English school of the early 19th
