Description

Pair of white marble and gilt bronze candelabra, Louis XVI style. Elegant pair of five-light candelabra, composed of a central white marble shaft resting on a square base with four spindle feet. Richly decorated with gilt bronze, the decoration features motifs from the Louis XVI repertoire. Rows of pearls, laurel friezes, water leaf friezes, volutes, and acanthus leaves. The finely chiseled arms are balanced around the central shaft. The gilding is original and very well preserved. Cleaning has been carried out to restore the gilding and original shine of these two pieces. This model is linked to the Italian decorative tradition of the late 19th century, influenced by French neoclassical models. Late 19th century. In very good condition. Height: 55 cm / Base diameter: 12 cm / Width 20 cm each.
