Description

Onyx lamp from the 50s and 60s: retro elegance par excellence This authentic lamp from the 1950s and 1960s embodies the refinement and taste of post-war design. Made from genuine onyx, it seduces with its warm shades of beige and honey, crossed by translucent veins that subtly capture and diffuse the light. Its slender foot and finely crafted base reflect the craftsmanship typical of the era, where the beauty of natural materials held an essential place. The darker, veined neck and base provide a harmonious contrast to the whole. The slightly flared white opaline glass shade elegantly completes the silhouette and diffuses a soft light, highlighting the golden reflections of the stone. A decorative piece of great nobility, this lamp from the 50s and 60s illuminates the space while
