This neoclassical pedestal table dates from the 20th century, taking up the Louis XVI style with the base decorated with fluting. Originally polychrome: yellow and green (see photos). The granite top is attached to the base by embedding. Very beautiful line and inspiration which recalls the works of Emilio Terry and Serge Roche for the return of neoclassical in France from the 20s / 30s until the post-war period. Height: 75 cm
Diameter: 80 cm
