Description

Alain Lerolle (1947-2012) - Glass Sculpture
Glass sculpture representing an abstract geometric form. Signature on the side
Alain Lerolle (1947-2012) is a multidisciplinary French artist: notably jeweler / jewelry designer, sculptor, glassmaker, painter. He was a pioneer in the use of titanium from the 1970s, which he mastered. His creations are mainly abstract, graphic. He also worked in glass, making glass totems, and exhibited in various international exhibitions. From the early 1990s, he returned to painting, favoring geometric constructions and mixed techniques, maintaining a rigor close to that of his jewelry. Visible at the Galerie Courcelles Antiquités, at 41 rue des Acacias, in the 17th arrondissement of Paris.
