Description

Long blue ceramic signed Atelier Mornac 1950's Ateliers Mornac (Mornac-sur-Seudre). In this village of artisans, classified and labeled "Town and Crafts", there have been pottery, stained glass, wrought iron, carved wood and basketwork workshops for decades. The ceramic tradition is alive here: Saintonge earthenware thrown and decorated by hand, unique pieces and custom orders. In terms of style, we readily come across plant or marine decorations, glazed enamels and decorative utilitarian forms, easy to integrate into interiors. For a "vintage" selection, favor pieces with careful decoration and an identifiable signature/workshop. Discover all our other products on our website:
