Description

We present this unique antique Italian table, crafted towards the end of the 19th century. The table is made of solid fir wood and features a light blue lacquer finish. This table is very simple and linear, free of excessive ornamentation. Its design focuses on practicality, as it was originally intended for household chores. It features an upper shelf, two practical drawers, and an additional shelf below for storing additional items. This additional work table is perfect for the kitchen, bathroom, or laundry room--any room in the house where you need to perform household chores. You can carry out your chores without sacrificing the charm of your decor. Please note that the table shows signs of wear on the lacquer consistent with its age and use. These signs add to the table's charm and history, but if you wish, you
