Eva Villalba (1972) - Sevilla, Seen From Triana

400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

Oil on panel. Signature, date, and exhibition label. In this impressionist view of Seville, the mist rising from the churning waters of the Guadalquivir as it flows through Triana blurs the contours, lines, and shapes of the Arenal de Sevilla (Seville Arenal). Only the cathedral's tower, the slender Giralda, rises presumptuously above the rooftops. Eva Villalba Vega was born in Seville in 1972. She graduated from the Faculty of Fine Arts in the same city in 1996 and specialized in conservation and restoration, although she has devoted much of her professional life to painting. Unframed image dimensions: 35 x 23 cm / 44 x 33 cm with luxury frame.
