Description

We present this exceptional Napoleon III period center table, quadrilobed and fully inlaid with musical attributes in the center and still on the top on each side a tiger's head in marquetry. This superb table is sold as new and in its original condition and will inevitably have to pass into the hands of a very good cabinetmaker because there are some slight lacks of veneer and also small uplifts, notably in the center of the musical instruments. The base is connected by spacers with a spinning top in the center, a pretty ornamentation of gilded bronzes, different types of wood used including rosewood. Shipping extra to be expected (E25)
