Description

We present this beautiful oil painting on canvas, superbly framed, signed Paul MORCHAIN. It is a seaside with men busy around boats in dry dock. This painting, which I would describe as post-impressionist, I find an influence of the great painter MARQUET. Paul MORCHAIN was born on December 27, 1876 in Rochefort where he died on October 26, 1939. He had two hats, that of an artist and that of a museum curator, he was also an official painter of the Navy, very good condition. Shipping extra to be expected. (E25)
