Description

Oil on cardboard depicting a Mediterranean landscape by the artist Adolphe Cossard (20th) Adolphe Cossard (1880-1952) was a French painter and illustrator born in Verberie and died in Hyères. A student of Luc-Olivier Merson, he exhibited at the Salon d'Automne in 1903. He then moved to the south, where he painted Provence, Corsica, and Morocco in a clear, warm light. His Mediterranean landscapes, often in oil, reflect the mild climate and the beauty of the shores. His works are featured in several museums, including the Gallé-Juillet Museum in Creil and the one in Geneva. His current price varies between 1,000 and 2,000 euros, depending on the subject and the size of the painting.
