Description

This beautiful pair of granite corbels, dating from the late 18th century, is finely carved with a central medallion and sunburst motifs on the sides. Perfect for adorning a balcony or a large fireplace mantel, it will add a touch of history and character to your decor. As can be expected for an object of this age, it presents some minor chips and breaks due to time, which testify to its authenticity (please see the photographs for details). Please consult the diagram for the exact dimensions (Approximate weight of about 500-700 kg per corbel).
