Description

We offer this antique Italian chaise longue dating back to the late 19th century. Featuring a solid walnut frame and a comfortable padded seat and backrest, its design is inspired by the flowing lines of the Louis XV period, alternating with refined and delicate floral decorations carved into the walnut. The upholstery is covered in white fabric. A large chaise longue, perfect for simply creating a distinctive visual accent in a room, but also ideal for relaxing. It can also be placed in the center of a room, offering a wide variety of placement options: in the living room, office, or even the bedroom. Wherever you choose to place it, it will bring a reminder of Italian history to your home and add emotion to your moments of relaxation or reading. The wood and upholstery are in excellent condition, but please note that the
