Description

"Pyramide" Ring - Diamonds, Rubies & Platinum 850 - Art Deco Style An original creation paying tribute to the Art Deco era, with its geometric structure and subtle interplay of light and color. The "Pyramide" ring is composed of four superimposed platinum tiers. The first two, octagonal and circular in shape, are set with old-cut round diamonds. They are followed by a row of calibrated rubies, encircling a central cushion-cut diamond weighing approximately 0.30 ct. Condition: The ring is in good overall condition, with no missing stones. Central diamond: old cushion cut, small table and slightly high crown, featuring a minor black inclusion visible under magnification and a slight tint in color. Rubies: range from raspberry to deep red tones, with fine transparency; two stones show
