Description

Refined white monochrome porcelain vase, reminiscent of the Medici-style "baccellato" vases. The vase features a square base, a round body, and a removable lid. The vase features geometric decorations of diamonds and ovules, as well as plant leaves, further enhancing the piece. This decorative vase exudes great taste and refinement, capable of adding class to any space. Made in Italy by Ginori, as evidenced by the stamp on the bottom, it was produced between the 1950s and 1960s. Dimensions: H x DM 48 x 26cm
