Description

Small bronze bust with medal patina. It represents Christ wearing his crown of thorns, beautiful quality, meticulous care has been taken in the execution of the details. An inscription on the back "Bronze Pollet?". This bronze was made during the Art Deco period, first half of the 20th century. Please note: this bronze is in very good general condition. We have deliberately left this Christ with its patina but it is possible to clean it further (tiny traces of verdigris on the back), there are two holes under the base used to fix it to a plinth. Please look carefully at the photos.
