Description

Bouillotte lamp in gilded bronze with painted metal shade, early 1900s.

Elegant and large Bouillotte lamp in gilded bronze, France.
The model features three arms with electrified candle holders and a finely chiseled circular base with leafy decorations. The central stem culminates in a richly decorated crown socket and an adjustable rod with an arrow, allowing the height of the lampshade to be adjusted.

The original lampshade in green painted metal is decorated with gilded floral and leafy motifs, typical of the Empire style.
A piece of great charm and refinement, ideal for classic settings or collections of French antiques.
