Description

Large Polychrome Bust of Mephistopheles Signed Lecorney Circa 1884. Superb polychrome plaster bust with several patinas of old bronzes, green bronze and medal-colored bronze. A very large bust representing Mephistopheles based on the theme of Faust. A very rare and very high quality bust where Mephistopheles appears to us in a suit decorated with fantastic animals, bats, owls, salamander, moths, etc. ending with a feather on his head. His face is mischievous and very expressive, smiling at us while showing his teeth under his fine mustache. This bust rests on a large pedestal. The patina with different shades of bronze color is very beautiful. Please note this bust is large. An old restoration on the feather of the hat. The bust is signed Lecorney on the back. A rare, superb bust of Mephistopheles, for fans of
