Description

Elegant large Louis XIV style fireplace, molded with its pretty thick top with double corbin beak, side cheeks sun plinth like my facade animated with thick and opulent molding, beautiful finish boudin frame and rounded throat; a sought-after marble of high quality, the favorite of the Sun King (notably for the peristyle (giant columns) of the Grand Trianon, and many interior ornaments of the Plais de Versailles... Him and that of Campan; the most prized and whose vein was exhausted in the bright red like this beautiful generous and ornamental piece, I was a specialist in Paris Marché Paul Bert and fond of this kind of unique and very decorative piece, happy to present to you this remarkable healthy piece without great problem to reassemble for a chic decoration inspired by the "Grand Siècle"
