Description

Ghom rug measuring 140 cm wide by 225 cm long (excluding fringes), hand-knotted in Iran around 1980 in perfect condition. The beginning of the manufacture of Ghom rugs took place in this city around 1920/1930, at the initiative and perseverance of the knotters and merchants of Kashan. Our model has a pile, selvedges and fringes in perfect condition. The manufacture of these beautiful, very resistant rugs is certainly recent, but the skillful and precise knotters as well as the "Ostads" cartoon designers have imposed their know-how thanks to the perfection of their work and the amplitude of the range of designs and colors. The second holiest city in Iran, 150 km from Tehran, Ghom is a major theological center. The knot used is the Persian knot tied very tightly on very fine wool. The decorations of plants, flowers, intertwined plants and animals, as well as the use of wool mixed with silk is practiced regularly. Each type of design remains stylized and the use of colors on the gohm is always very harmonious. Our model presents a geometric medallion placed next to other medallions, its field is covered with flowers, the whole gives us the impression of a Persian or French garden, flowerbeds, central fountain, paths give a great symmetry to the whole. Marketing is done under several names: Qom, Ghom, Gom, Qum, Kum, and Ghoum. Our model with plant decoration is in very good condition, in a beautiful classic spirit and unusual colors that are only found on Indo-Persian. A slight rusting on one side which does not spoil the beauty of this piece. Dimensions: Width: 140 cm (55") x Length: 225 cm (89") ----- 250 cm (98") with fringes This carpet has been cleaned from professional and ecological way.
