Description

An 18th-century chest of drawers - desk in varnished walnut and light wood trim with three large drawers topped with a flap concealing three small drawers and six niches. Its curved front, typical of furniture from the Rhine Valley, gives it elegance. This piece of furniture is very practical and, moreover, in very good condition for current use as it was recently restored. Height of the open flap: 79 cm. We can possibly arrange transport in mainland France at a reasonable price.
