Description

Irish Wolfhound, is the most rustic and the largest of the sighthounds. The Fédération Cynologique Internationale lists the breed in group 10, section 2, wire-haired sighthounds, standard no 160. (Thanks Wikipedia) Superb bronze from Vienna, beautiful chiseled bronze sculpture painted in renowned workshops, end of 19th century, no visible signature. This very large animal was produced in a size that is also spectacular: 25cm x 17cm for a weight of 1.6kg!... A wonderful dog, very ancient origin, extremely fast in race, formidable in attack, and of which the masters have been very proud for 2000 years... . Beautiful original condition, barely a little wear.
