Description

Pair of very beautiful miniature porcelain vases, ball-shaped, topped with a small neck and resting on a small heel. The bottom has a purple glaze tending towards gray, a very beautiful and extremely delicate color, they are decorated with a very beautiful decoration painted in gold relief with motifs of birds perched on branches of plum or apple trees in bloom and butterflies which occupy the entire circumference of the vases. Very beautiful display items! However, it should be noted that one has two small chips, one on the neck and the other on the edge of the heel (see the last photo on this subject).
