(with TH monogram). This double mark was used between 1893 and 1915, during the period when Haviland promoted its iconic Porcelaine Mousseline series--a porcelain of extreme finesse, almost translucent, named by analogy with textile muslin to evoke its whiteness, lightness, and silky feel. Decoration: rich gilding on the handles and lids; cobalt frieze decorated with a delicate gilt motif in the spirit of Louis XVI; subtle reliefs highlighting the plasticity of the material. Style: Belle Époque, with neo-rococo and Louis XVI elements--elegant curves, refined proportions, brilliant gilding. Condition: showcase. Complete service, in perfect original condition. Dating According to the marks and the decorative style, this service was made around 1900-1915, at the time of the full expansion of the Théodore Haviland factory in Limoges.
