Description

We are delighted to present this incredible polished egg shape of Lapis Lazuli, a dark blue metamorphic rock often used in jewelry and decoration. The sphere displays a vibrant mix of predominantly dark blue hues, interspersed with veins of white calcite and flecks of golden pyrite, characteristic of high-quality Lapis Lazuli. The stone is mounted on a decorative 19th-century gilt bronze base. The natural beauty and unique pattern of this stone make it a striking decorative piece that would enhance any living space.
