Description

A beautiful Napoleon III period painting by A. Goualin depicting a lively rural scene: a group of hens, roosters, and poultry in front of a stone farmhouse typical of the French countryside. The artist subtly captures the daily life of 19th-century farmers, with a remarkable sense of detail and light. This work exudes the authenticity and serenity of the rural world, in a balanced and lively composition. The hilly background, the stone house, and the farmyard animals create a bucolic and nostalgic atmosphere, typical of 19th-century genre painting.
