Description

Produced in the 20th century, this oil on canvas by Alfredo Palmero de Gregorio sensitively captures the freshness of a bouquet of flowers arranged in a white vase against a delicately nuanced background of blues and greens. True to his expressive style, the artist emphasizes the vibrancy of color and the spontaneity of the pictorial gesture. The roses and carnations, in a harmony of red, pink, and white tones, stand out vividly, while the slightly blurred background accentuates the impression of depth. The frontal framing and centered composition give this still life a timeless elegance, blending academic tradition with chromatic modernity.
