Description
-------------

Signed lower right: R. Dubuc Oil on canvas - 80 x 60 cm (without frame) With wooden frame: 102 x 82 cm Charming rural composition depicting a path lined with poplars leading to a farm and a church steeple under a golden late afternoon sky. In the foreground, aligned sheaves of wheat provide a beautiful depth and a peaceful atmosphere. The slightly impasto touch perfectly captures the golden light of the North. A painter active in the second half of the 20th century, R. Dubuc is part of the Franco-Belgian landscape artists inspired by rural life and the fertile countryside of Flanders or the North of France. Good general condition. Patinated wooden frame, in beautiful harmony with the warm tones of the scene. Careful delivery by Cocolis.
