Description

A refined French-made game table crafted from rosewood and mahogany, embellished with splendid floral inlays on the top and sides. The elegant sinuous lines, typical of the Transition style between Louis XV and Louis XVI, are enhanced by chiseled gilt-bronze finishes that underscore its elegance.

The book-style top features the classic green baize, revealing a finely inlaid backgammon game and a checkers table. A piece of great charm and versatility, perfect for adding a touch of refined French elegance to any space.
