Description

Superb old castle tablecloth, woven in a sumptuous linen and silk damask with a spectacular decoration of knights, amazons and castle. The fabric, with a silky shine and exceptional finesse, evokes the most beautiful French damasks of the 19th century, made for large aristocratic houses and estates. The double embroidered monogram "KN", richly executed by hand in a leafy style, signs a refined piece of trousseau, probably from a large domain. The light plays in the plot, revealing a stunning decor, both noble and romantic. Material: linen and silk yarn (shine and flexibility typical of quality mixed fabrics) Period: mid to the end of the 19th century (around 1860-1880) Origin: castle linen, reception service Condition: beautiful general presentation - I point out 4 times, slight
