Description

Superb garniture composed of two baluster vases and a central covered vase, in pale pink opaline richly decorated with fine gold and enhanced with small polychrome enamels. The delicate decoration of garlands, medallions and neoclassical motifs evokes the Louis XVI style, very fashionable at the end of the 19th century. Refined French work, reminiscent of the productions of Legras or Baccarat in their decorative creations around 1880. The opaline has a satin transparency and meticulous gilded details, testifying to high-quality enamel work. Period: late 19th century, Style: Louis XVI / neoclassical Material: pink opaline, gold decoration and polychrome enamels Dimensions:
o Height of the two vases: 40 cm o Height of the covered vase: 35 cm o Diameter: 10 cm
