Description

Elegant PoliarTE chandelier, made in Italy circa 1970. Composed of clear glass elements encrusted with air bubbles, it forms a remarkable layered pattern that beautifully reflects the light. The glass is enhanced by chrome-plated metal fittings, emphasizing the sculptural and architectural character typical of PoliarTE's work. Bearing the original manufacturer's label, this chandelier is an authentic example of 1970s Italian lighting design, combining refined craftsmanship with timeless modernism.
