Description

From the craftsmanship of the Florentine artisans at Banci Firenze came this hand-forged iron coffee table in 1980s with two crystal tops joined by curved s-shaped upright, shaped legs in the color of dark brown inserted in rings.The two crystal shelves are inset into the gilded iron frame and can then be removed. The coffee table rests on circular feet.The elegant wrought-iron frame has a golden finish that gives this luxury piece of furniture a timeless appeal. It is a coffee table that can be placed in any interior, whether classic or modern, and lends itself well to enrich the space in front of the sofa, perhaps embellished with a rug. Good condition, minimal scratches on the crystals, signs of wear compatible with use, comes from a private Milanese residence.
