19th Century Painting "children's Game"

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Diameter : cadre 25cm vue 17cm

Description

Elegant round panel painting depicting two young children playing with a hoop in an interior. A scene from the life of the period, the originality lies in its round shape, including the period frame molded in blackened wood. The two young children appear to be posed as in a photograph. Decorative set in good condition and conservation
